

MORNING LINE ODDS

Mike Battaglia has been Churchill Downs' morning line odds maker for 51 years since 1974. He also served as the track's announcer from 1977-97 and simulcast host from 1997-2007.

Battaglia, who resides in Northern Kentucky, is a former horse racing analyst for NBC and retired as the track announcer for Turfway Park in early 2016 and simulcast host for Keeneland Race Course in 2016. He also served as a Vice President for Turfway Park.

Morning line odds, which are odds given to horses in a race prior to the start of betting as a prediction how the linemaker thinks the public will bet, will be revealed at the Kentucky Derby Post Position Draw.

Battaglia has correctly predicted the Derby favorite 76% of the time: 38-for-50.

Morning Line Odds were first published in the official Kentucky Derby Day program in 1949. Records prior to 1949 are incomplete.
